

New Growth Commitments

Big Idea: Luke 2:42 and 50 provide brackets for us to understand Jesus' spiritual growth. These and the verses in between provide us with a guide as we seek to move toward spiritual maturity, and become like Christ. Since we are disciples of Christ, we will need to "grow up" in these areas of spiritual commitment.

Addressing the problem of influence: What influences me most?

- Disciple growth demands developing _____

Addressing the problem of purpose: What is my reason for living?

- Disciple growth demands expanding _____

Addressing the problem of relating: How shall I treat others?

- Disciple growth demands engaging _____

Which area of disciple growth do you need to work on most in 2017?

NEW GROWTH COMMITMENT 2017

As Jesus demonstrated to us growth, I covenant to the following actions so that I may experience the transforming power of the Holy Spirit in a fresh spiritual breakthrough (mark all that apply):

- Let God's Word have greater influence by developing a habit of regular reading, study and application of the Bible to my everyday life
- Make my life of eternal value by expanding my participation in God's purpose
- Battle personal pride by engaging in humble relations with others.
